

One Salinas Art Festival Public Art Contest Rules

1. Artwork must be created on a metal newsstand provided by the Californian Newspaper. The artwork should be painted, collage, or mosaic with a theme of peace and unity.
2. Entries must be original, hand-produced artwork focused on the peace & unity theme. Please do not use copyrighted material. Entries with inappropriate language or subject matter will not be accepted.
3. Renderings of symbols, places or objects may be based upon existing published imagery, but they must be creatively modified in the artist's own style.
4. Any media may be used, provided the finished piece is weather-proof & functional. Mixed media, paint, spray paint, glitter, collage, sand, mosaic and other materials that create texture may be used.
5. All artwork must be dry before submission in order to be included.
6. A completed entry form, signed by the artist (and a parent, teacher, or guardian, if under 18 years of age) must be attached to the interior of the artwork.
7. Awards will be given in four major divisions: Grades 6-8; Grades 9-12; College; and Over 25. With special honors to most creative use of material; best message of peace; and Salinas Community
8. Employees of the Californian and their immediate family members (i.e. spouses, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, and siblings) are not eligible to enter.
9. All reproduction rights to all of the submitted artwork will remain with the artists. However, all prize-winners shall agree that the Californian and El Sol be granted non-exclusive reproduction rights for advertising, promotion, website, and print publication purposes.
10. All entries will become the property of the Californian as functional public art and be displayed or exhibited in public locations around the City of Salinas beginning in April 2010.
